

Finablr PLC

Information on Tax Status

This update is further to the information disclosed in the prospectus published by Finablr PLC on 20 May 2019 as part of the initial public offering of shares in Finablr PLC. The section of that prospectus entitled “United Kingdom Taxation” observed that, at the time the prospectus was drafted, it remained uncertain as to whether Finablr PLC would continue to be a close company for United Kingdom tax purposes following the initial public offering. This was because it was not known whether Finablr PLC would be able to benefit from an exemption from close company status that applies to certain types of quoted companies.

Following completion of the initial public offering, the directors of Finablr PLC now understand that Finablr PLC currently continues to be a close company for United Kingdom tax purposes. As a result, certain transactions entered into by Finablr PLC or other members of the Finablr group may have tax implications for shareholders in Finablr PLC. Shareholders should consult their own professional advisers on the potential impact of the close company rules.
